

Program

Training School on building research networks, writing successful grant applications, and on increasing knowledge about European funding opportunities

Venue: Room 3040, 1 1/2 floor (Norwegian 2 1/2 floor),

University of Oslo, Institute of Clinical Medicine, Forskningsveien 7, Vinderen, Building A, Oslo.

Trainers:

Malin Solli Johansen, Senior Adviser - Research Support

Erlendur Helgason, Senior Adviser - Research Support

Friday 16th of March 2018:

08.30 – 09.00: Registration and coffee.

09.00 – 09.05: Welcome to the TREATme TS in Oslo! (Professor Randi Ulberg)

09.05 – 09.15: Opening by Professor Ingrid Melle, Head of Research, Division of Mental Health and Addiction, Institute of Clinical Medicine, University of Oslo,

09.15 – 10.00: Introduction. Tour the table trainers and trainees.

Funding opportunities; European upcoming calls and news about the next European research program FP9.

10.00 – 10.15: Coffee break

10.15 – 12.00: Main questions to answer in an application -analyzing an abstract (introduction and practical exercises).

How to write a successful application part 1:

-What are the intentions in different calls? How to develop a project? What is meant by "excellence"?

12.00 – 13.00: Lunch

13.00 – 14.00: How to write a successful application part 2 (What is meant by "Impact" and "Implementation"?)

14.00 – 14.15: Coffee break

14.15 – 16.30: Analyzing a call text and building a project (working in groups and plenary discussions)

Saturday 17th of March 2018:

09.30 – 12.00: Workshops on identifying relevant calls in accordance with TREATme MoU and ongoing activities.

12.00 – 13.00: Lunch

13.00 – 17.00: Workshops on writing collaborative TreatMe grant applications

15.00 - 17.00 (Parallel session): Vice-leader meeting on dissemination of TS results in the TREATme Network.

18.30: Dinner at Randi's home

